

THURSDAY MAY 12, 2022.

SINCE 1845

The Big Story •
2.3 billion already thirsty, with worse
droughts expected
| A8

The Big Story •
Father, son charged over Bentley incident outside school | A2

Life •
How 10 years of The Avengers
changed movies
| CI&2

THE STRAITS TIMES

Best News Website or Mobile Service ★ WAN-IFRA Digital Media Awards Asia

Silat exponent clinches Singapore's first gold medal at Hanoi SEA Games

Singapore's pencak silat exponent Iqbal Abdul Rahman celebrating yesterday after winning the Republic's first gold medal at the Hanoi SEA Games, which officially open tonight. Iqbal, who scored 9.96 to pip Thailand's Ilyas Sadara (9.93) in the men's artistic singles (tunggal) final, cried after his victory as it was his first SEA Games gold medal in six outings.

ST PHOTO:
JASON QUAH

SEE SPORT •
B20

