

Super Sunday: Pick of the action

A bumper 49 golds at stake

Today is the last Sunday of these SEA Games. And with a bumper 49 gold medals on offer, there will be plenty of opportunities to catch the action

BASKETBALL

Men's semi-finals (OCBC Arena Hall 1, 8pm)
Singapore meet Indonesia while the Philippines take on Thailand for a spot in the final.

BOWLING

Masters step-ladder finals - Women (5pm), men (6pm) (Orchid Country Club)
The 18-year-old Malaysian Rafiq Ismail is eyeing his fourth gold, in the men's Masters. Singapore's Jazreel Tan, who has three silvers, is seeking a golden breakthrough today.

FLOORBALL

Finals - Women (3pm), men (6pm) (ITE College Central)
With the game being introduced as a medal sport, Singapore will be looking to create history by winning the first golds in SEA Games floorball.

PENCAK SILAT

Tanding class F 70-75kg final and other classes (Expo Hall 2, 5pm)
Muhammad Nur Alfian Juma'en, who won the South-east Asian title in April, is Singapore's sole finalist.
He is defending his title against Vietnam's world champion Tran Dinh Nam.

SAILING

Men's keelboat racing and other classes (Marina Bay from 10.30am, National Sailing Centre from 11.30am)
Seven golds are up for grabs on the final day of sailing and Singapore is poised to add to its seven-title haul so far.

WATER SKI & WAKEBOARD

Men's and women's overall (Bedok Reservoir, finals from 1.15pm)
Sasha Christian already has two golds in slalom and wakeboard. She will try for more on the final day of the event.
