Member of Parliament Lim Biow Chuan (in white top) graced the Singapore Silat Federation's (Persisi) inaugural appreciation dinner at the Grand Hyatt Singapore's Straits Kitchen last night.

The event also served as an awards night, where medallists from last month's Pencak Silat World Championships in Phuket were rewarded for winning one gold, three silvers and 12 bronzes.

World champion Sheik Farhan Sheik Alau'ddin received a cash reward of $2,000, while silver medallists each received $500 and bronze medallists got $250.

Persisi gave out $7,000 in total, with plans to hand out such awards after every world championships, South-east Asia Games and Asian Games. — LIM SAY HENG
